Nominations for Office: Roberts Rules

An organization can nominate candidates (open nominations):

Before the AGM:

Email

Regular Mail

From the floor at the AGM:

By a nominating committee

By ballot

By email

The Rules:

Recognition by the Chair is not required to make a nomination.

Nominations don't have to be seconded, it is not out of order for the member nominated to second this, indicating their acceptance of the nomination.

A person can nominate themselves.

A member should not offer more than one nomination until all other members have had the opportunity to make nominations.

Nominees may not leave the room/or the phone during the nomination, when the vote is taken, or when the vote is counted.

A member can rise and decline the nomination during the nominating process.

After each nomination the President repeats the name to the assembly.

Nominations are taken for successive offices in the order they are listed in the Bylaws.

The Chair declares nominations closed after making sure no more nominations are forthcoming, by calling three times for more nomination.

A motion to close nominations is not necessary.
